❌ When a book which you wish to check out is already reserved by others, the reservation will be made in the order of who applied first.

❌ You cannot make reservations in the following cases:

- When the books is NOT out on loan.
- When you have overdue books.

Renewal books or other materials

You can extend your borrowing period one time before the due date. The renewed borrowing period starts on the day you renew.

There are two ways to renew books and other materials:

- Renew at the circulation counter.
(Please make sure to bring your ID card and the book you want to renew.)
- Login to “My Library” and renew online.

You cannot renew books in the following cases:

- The book is overdue or you are in the overdue penalty period.
- The book is reserved by other users.
- You have already renewed the book once earlier.
- During vacation periods when classes are not in session, you cannot do long-term renewal of books or other materials.

Renewals with “My Library”

When you receive a message that some content is not accessible, please try to access the eBook again later.
